

University of Groningen

Bacterial adhesion forces and biofilm prevention on orthodontic materials

Mei, Li

IMPORTANT NOTE: You are advised to consult the publisher's version (publisher's PDF) if you wish to cite from it. Please check the document version below.

Document Version

Publisher's PDF, also known as Version of record

Publication date:

2011

Link to publication in University of Groningen/UMCG research database

Citation for published version (APA):

Mei, L. (2011). Bacterial adhesion forces and biofilm prevention on orthodontic materials. s.n.

Copyright

Other than for strictly personal use, it is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

The publication may also be distributed here under the terms of Article 25fa of the Dutch Copyright Act, indicated by the "Taverne" license. More information can be found on the University of Groningen website: <https://www.rug.nl/library/open-access/self-archiving-pure/taverne-amendment>.

Take-down policy

If you believe that this document breaches copyright please contact us providing details, and we will remove access to the work immediately and investigate your claim.

Downloaded from the University of Groningen/UMCG research database (Pure): <http://www.rug.nl/research/portal>. For technical reasons the number of authors shown on this cover page is limited to 10 maximum.

Acknowledgments

Acknowledgments

“Grateful for favors received”. I owe this expression to many persons for the realization of my thesis. Here are my sincere thanks to those who have helped me directly and indirectly:

Dear Prof. Henk Busscher, thank you very much for encouraging and enabling me to undertake this Ph.D. research in Groningen. I would like to express my deepest appreciation to you for your guidance throughout the project. Your global perspective and great perception contributed positively to my professional development. You taught me the art of scientific writing and the essence of project management. Your profound knowledge in scientific research impressed and influenced me very much. Your consistent support is encouraging me to go further. I will always remain indebted. Thank you very much.

Dear Prof. Henny van der Mei, thank you for your patience and understanding when dealing with all of my questions and problems during my Ph.D. study. You provided me with a consistent, strong support in my research, taught me the necessary skills to present my work at international conferences and to communicate with scientists from all over of the world. You were always ready to share your knowledge and give constructive comments towards the project. I do appreciate all your kind help. I treasure you as a motivator, a promoter, and a dear friend. Thank you very much.

Dear Prof. Yijin Ren, thank you for your generous encouragement and assistance in my life at both professional and personal levels. Your enthusiasm helped a lot to overcome the problems that I was facing during my study. Thank you for your kind arrangements for my orthodontic clinical training and practice during my Ph.D. study in Groningen. I appreciate your contributions to make my research and studies productive. Thank you very much.

Dear Prof. Andrew Sandham, thank you very much for your encouragement and assistance in my academic pursuit. It was an unforgettable experience when I first talked with you in Chengdu in 2007. Your enthusiasm and kind arrangements made me feel at home when I first came to The Netherlands. Your profound knowledge, gentility and great kindness impressed and influenced me very much. Thank you very much indeed.

Dear Prof. Willem Norde, thank you very much for your profound knowledge, great patience and kindness, even when I asked stupid questions. Thank you for your kind concerns for my research every time you came to Groningen. I sincerely thank you for your expertise, constructive comments, and helps. Thank you very much.

Dear Prof. Ton J. A. Loontjens, thank you very much for your patience when teaching me polymer-chemistry. And thank you for your patience when I asked stupid chemical questions. I am deeply impressed by your kindness and professional dedication to research. Thank you very much.

Thank you very much Prof. Arie Jan van Winkelhoff, Prof. R.R.M. Bos, and Prof. Willem Norde for your role in the reading committee of my thesis and your careful examination of my thesis.

Thank you very much Dr. Y.J. Gu for your encouragement and kind help in both my academic pursuit and personal life during my study in Groningen. I wish you and Dr. Wei good health for ever.

Thank you very much Joop de Vries, Minie Rustema-Abbing, Rene Dijkstra and Betsy van de Belt-Gritter for teaching me the experimental techniques and sharing your valuable experiences with me. It took great patience for you to teach me atomic force microscopy and microbiological techniques, when I started my project from scratch. Your kind care and concern for my life made me feel at home in Groningen. Thank you very much!

Acknowledgments

Thank you Theo van Kooten for your kind assistance in the cytotoxic tests; thank you Bastiaan Krom for teaching me fluorescence microscopy; thank you Prashant Sharma for sharing your valuable knowledge in biofilm research; thank you Ed de Jong for your efficient IT help; and thank you Ward van der Houwen for your kind assistance in my mechanical bond strength tests.

Thank you very much Marije Jongsma and Dr. Bert Jongsma for discussing orthodontic cases and sharing your valuable experiences with me. Thank you very much Ineke Wielinga, Zacharias Fourie, Alex Horst, Janalt Damstra, Sandra, and Mariana for all your kind help during my orthodontic clinical training and practices. It was a great, pleasant time to work with you.

Thank you very much Gea van der Bijj for your kind concern for my life during my PhD study. Your warm heart and consideration helped me to pass the homesick period when I first came to Groningen.

Thank you very much Wya Kloppenburg, Ina Heidema-Kol, Willy van den Beukel-Koebrugge, and Ellen van Drooge for all your kind administrative help.

Thank you very much Marieke Otten for your kindness in translating the summary into Dutch and your kind help in daily life. Your cheerful mind impressed me very much. Thank you!

Thank you very much Shaochong for being my paranimf and for your sweet coffee which enables me to realize that time can be used not only for working but also for “wasting”.

Thanks to my good colleagues Yunwei Wei, Chongxia Yue, Lei Song, Lei Ke, Theerthankar Das, Niles Boks, Hans Kaper, Jessica Younes, Katya Ovchinnikova, Brandon Peterson, Chungping Xu, Lijun Tan, Ya Wang, Bo Liu, Yun Chen, Bingran Zhao, Adam Olsson, Joana Domingues, Alie den Hartogh, Anton Hosman, Marja Slomp, Yi Wang, Qingsong Ye, Shanti Dewi, Jelmer Sjollema, Reol Kuijer, Mihaela Crismaru, Mojtaba Daghighi, Guru Subbiahdoss, Deepak Veeregowda, Agnieszka Muszanska, Lucja Jarosz, Marco Verkaik, Marianne Booij, Arina Buizer, Hilde Steg, Jelly Atema, Nina, Tita, Danielle Neut, Ning Ding, Yan He, Reza, Chris van Hoogmoed, Jan Swartjes, Shahriar Sharifi, and Jeroen Kuipers. I enjoyed everyday of working with you and wish you all every success in each of your careers.

Last but not least, I wish to express my deepest appreciation to my parents and my dear Wenwen. Your continuous support and encouragement kept me going all these years. Your love and sacrifices for me have transcended all the difficulties. Just like a kite, no matter how far away I fly, I will be by your side if you gently pull the line. Thank you very much! This thesis is dedicated to you!

